How to search for language centers?

- ✓ More than 60 university-affiliated Mandarin learning centers in Taiwan
- ✓ Portal website of Taiwan Mandarin Educational Resource Center at <https://lmit.edu.tw/lc>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Taiwan Mandarin Educational Resource Center. The website has a light beige background with a traditional Chinese aesthetic. At the top, there is a navigation bar with orange tabs: 'Traditional Chinese', 'Find Institutes', 'Find Courses', 'News', 'Discover Taiwan', 'TOCFL', and 'On-line Learning'. Below the navigation bar, the main heading 'Learn Chinese in Taiwan' is displayed in red. To the left of the heading, the characters '來', '臺', '灣', '學', '華', '語' are shown in a grid, each with its Pinyin label above it. Below the heading, a paragraph states: 'Taiwan continues to use the traditional Chinese character forms. Learning these lets you more fully appreciate the Chinese language and culture across the centuries.' To the right of the text, there is an illustration of a woman in a red jacket and a man in a green shirt and blue cap, both holding tablets and looking at each other. A pink cherry blossom branch is also visible. At the bottom, there are two main search buttons: 'Find Institutes' and 'Find Courses'. Below these, there are several dropdown menus for filtering search results: 'Institute', 'Scholarship', 'Certification', 'Transportation', and 'Accommodation'. The website is viewed in a browser window, with the address bar showing 'https://lmit.edu.tw/lc'. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom of the screen.
